Transfer of Copyright and Authorization to Publish

Title of manuscript (hereinafter, “the Work”):

Author(s):

Title of Journal:

---

Heron Publishing (the Publisher) asks for an assignment of the copyright in the Work in consideration for reviewing, editing and publishing the Work. An assignment of copyright empowers the Publisher to protect the Work from unauthorized use, and disseminate the Work to the widest possible extent by dealing expeditiously with reprint or republication requests from third parties. To avoid delay in publication, authors are requested to return this form promptly by fax or first class mail.

All authors must sign this agreement. If only one author’s signature appears below, then the signing author represents and warrants that he/she has the permission of all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf.

By signing this agreement, the author(s) warrant that:

- the Work is original and has not been published or submitted for publication elsewhere;
  - the Work does not infringe the copyright or moral rights of anyone else, and that the copyright in the Work has not been assigned to anyone else; and
  - all authors of the Work have been properly credited, and all authors named as co-authors are aware that they have been so named.

PART A: Transfer of copyright

(All authors must sign this Section unless they were a U.S. Government or Crown employee at the time that the Work was performed, in which case they must sign Part B or C below.)

- (i) In consideration for reviewing, publishing and distributing the Work, I hereby irrevocably transfer the copyright in the Work to the Publisher. I understand that the Publisher will take all reasonable steps to inform me of any third party requests to reproduce the work for promotional or marketing purposes. I also understand that I retain the following rights:
- the right to reuse the Work or any portions thereof, royalty-free and without permission, in any future work of my own, provided that the source of the original publication is properly acknowledged;
  - the right to present the Work orally;
  - the right to make copies of the Work or any portion thereof, royalty-free and without permission, for my own personal use or internal company use, provided that the copies are not distributed outside of my company or institution and are not offered for sale, and that the source of the original publication is properly acknowledged; and
  - all proprietary rights, such as patents.

I understand that I must obtain the permission of the Publisher prior to any use of the Work not mentioned above.
